I think politicians should prioritize $ Funding for community Health and safety through development and Funding of current local/state community orgs.